AUC's Nomination & Election Guidelines:

- Members in good standing within the AUC membership are encouraged to run for Director positions on the AUC Board.
- Directors in good standing are encouraged to run for Executive positions (President, Vice President, Treasurer).
- Members may nominate themselves but still require two additional signatures to be accepted into the election.
- Nominees and their supporting members must reside in Alberta, current member & must be AUC member at least 30 days prior to AGM
- Nominations are accepted at least 2 weeks prior to AGM. Nominations from the floor are discouraged.
- Existing Board members who wish to remain in their position, must be nominated & seconded to be eligible for re-election.
- Nominees present are encouraged to briefly introduce themselves to the AGM participants & are encouraged to submit this to the AUC's Office 2 weeks prior to AGM (see over).
- Should there be only one nomination, that person will be elected by acclamation. Should there be more, then voting will take place by secret ballot. The results are announced immediately following ballot count. A motion to destroy all ballots will then be called.
- The newly elected Board assumes office immediately upon being declared elected.
- Any irregularities during the Elections will void the results and cause new Elections to be announced & held.
- As per AUC Bylaws—no proxy voting is allowed. Members must come to the AGM to vote & are encouraged to car-pool.
- Elected Directors may not hold any other elected position in the Council.

Not sure of your membership status or have questions?? Please contact the AUC Office to ensure eligibility in upcoming AGM/Elections.
